Dear Colleagues,

This meeting will be held in Shenzhen, China on Oct. 17-20th, 2024. The scientific program will start with two keynote speeches in the afternoon of Oct. 17th and end in the late afternoon of Oct. 20th.

The ATW traditionally gathers basic research scientists, clinicians and social helpers to discuss the progress and current status of the AT research, aiming to deliver strategies to cure the disease. The meeting will cover molecular and cellular studies of ATM and its interacting networks in DNA damage-related or non-related signaling and the clinical aspects of the disease. The isDDRHD series with a theme focusing on DNA damage response, genome stability and cancer was initiated as the Sino-German DNA Repair meeting in 2010 and has evolved into an annual international symposium since 2012.
